What is the Omeka historical collection?

Omeka is an online service that provides libraries with easy to use digital collections websites best for online exhibits. Lincolnwood houses its online historical collection on our Omeka site.

The collection is a work in progress as items are processed from our physical local history collection. This collection includes various historical documents, newspaper articles, town biographies, memoirs, zoning ordinances, newsletters, organization directories, photographs, reports, and various other records and documents.

How to access Lincolnwood's Omeka collection

1. Go to the library's website, lincolnwoodlibrary.org
2. Hover over Resources and select Resource Quick Links.
3. Select View Resource to the right of Omeka.

Or you can manually use any web browser to go to <https://lpld.omeka.net/> to get started.
